

WARMBLOODS™

TO DAY
Your Connection to the Modern Sport Horse

TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2017

FEATURES

- 14 Battle of our Future Young Breeders by Liz Cornell
Three N.A. registries send youth to Canada for the eighth international Young Breeders Championships.
- 21 The Rapid Rise of Young Eventer Will Zuschlag by Amber Heintzberger
This wanna-be bull rider found his niche in eventing.
- 27 A Rare Budenny Finds her Cowboy by Karina Rapp
A champion reiner connects with a Budenny mare and together they find success in the jumpers.
- 33 The Money Game: Show Mileage for Less by Kim MacMillan
Affordable ways to showcase young talent.
- 45 Many Young Horses, Only One Saddle? by Jochen Schleese
Guidance on how to fit many horses with one saddle when on a limited budget.
- 49 Finding Consistency of Product in Young Horses by Judy Wardrope
A look at one system that's been helping breeders and owners of young horses get a good start.
- 54 The Value of Foal Inspections by Charlene Strickland
A look at the pros and cons of inspecting foals.

DEPARTMENTS & COLUMNS

- 10 Publisher's Welcome by Liz Cornell
- 39 Point of View – Young Horse Championships – A German Perspective
by Amber Heintzberger
- 60 Conformation Corner – Six yearlings and weanlings are scrutinized. by Judy Wardrope
- 63 Point of View – How I learned to start young horses. by JP Giacomini
- 68 Barn Exam – It's Just Money. by Attorney Kryisia Nelson
- 70 Index of Advertisers
- 73 Warmblood Whoas – Kissing Frogs. by Michael Barisone

Nicole Millard

Ed Anderson

The Media Project

www.reit-bilder.de

On the cover:

Will Zuschlag and Southern Commander after winning the Young Rider eventing championship at NAJYRC in July.
Photo by Taylor Pence/US Equestrian

